A NOTE FROM DR. POWERS AND MRS. POWELL

As the 2020-2021 school year comes to an end, we would like to thank all of the students, parents, and staff members for making this year successful. It has been a challenging one, but we stayed strong together and helped our students complete an unforgettable school year.

Please continue to read Superintendent Martinez's messages and check the TRUSD website over the summer to keep updated on any news or events that might take place. We expect to start school on August 17th.

Have a safe and relaxing summer!
